Subject:	Grievance Procedures for Delinquent Youth
Authority:	TCA 37-5-105 (3); 37-5-106
Standards:	COA: CM 5.01
Application:	To All Department of Children's Services Family Service Workers/Juvenile Service Workers/Juvenile Probation Officer assigned Delinquent Youth on Probation, Aftercare or custody (not placed at a YDC)
Policy Statement:
Youth on probation, custody or aftercare shall have the right and opportunity to file complaints or grievances and appeal, free from fear of reprisal, regarding services provided, Rules of Probation, Permanency Plan or Rules of Aftercare that may be imposed upon them. This policy does not apply to youth placed in a Youth Development Center.
Purpose:
To ensure that youth are afforded the opportunity to express problems and issues they are having while on probation, in custody or on aftercare without being subjected to any adverse action.
Procedures:
A. The grievance process	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The youth's Court Liaison or Family Services Worker (FSW)/Juvenile Service Workers (JSW)/Juvenile Probation Officer (JPO) explains the grievance process to the youth and his/her primary caretaker during their first meeting. The youth and his/her primary caretaker signs form CS-0869, Grievance Procedure Notice Probation and Aftercare Cases acknowledging that the grievance procedure has been explained. 2. The following process is used in all cases involving a youth grievance: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) The youth may state his/her grievance either orally or in writing to his/her FSW/JSW/JPO. The FSW/JSW/JPO meets with the youth within five (5) working days after being informed of the grievance and attempt to resolve the youth's complaint. b) If the youth's grievance pertains to allegations of sexual or physical abuse in any form, the allegation must be reported to DCS Child Protective Services Central Intake (1-877-237-0004) immediately. c) The FSW/JSW/JPO must document the attempt at resolution on form CS-0328, Youth Grievance Report-Probation/Aftercare/Interstate Compact for Juveniles. The youth is given a copy of the report within five (5) working days of the initial meeting about the grievance.

	d) If the matter cannot be resolved as provided in the grievance report, the FSW/JSW/JPO places a check mark beside “Team Leader” on the grievance form indicating the next level in the grievance process and ask the youth to sign and date the report in the space provided. e) The FSW/JSW/JPO forwards the report within two (2) working days to the team leader who indicates on the form by signature, the receipt of the report.
B. Appeal of FSW’s/JSW’s/JPO’s decision	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The team leader gives the FSW/JSW/JPO fair opportunity to respond to the allegations of the grievance and may conduct, at his/her discretion, a formal or informal hearing on the matter. Any such hearing is scheduled at a time and place that permits the youth and/or his primary caretaker to attend. 2. The team leader notifies the youth in writing of the time, place, and subject of the hearing not less than ten (10) days prior to the time scheduled for the hearing. The youth and/or his/her primary caretaker and the FSW/JSW/JPO may present witnesses, documentation and proof pertinent to the grievance issue. 3. In all cases, the team leader makes a ruling in writing not later than twenty (20) days after first receiving the grievance. The team leader forwards to the FSW/JSW/JPO, the youth and his/her primary caretaker a copy of his/her decision clearly stating the reasons for the ruling.
