Glossary:
Term	Definition
Young adult:	A person who meets the definition of an “applicable child” according to federal and state legislative and statutory guidelines for maintenance of federal Title IV-E foster care. These criteria are established in Section A of this policy.
Worker	A term used to identify the position assigned the primary responsibility of building, preparing, supporting, and maintaining the Child and Family Team and coordinating the provision of services, when that position is not within DCS. An example includes provider agency staff assigned to case manage Extension of Foster Care cases.
Qualified Alien:	A qualified alien is a non-citizen who belongs to one of several alien categories established in the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). Qualified aliens are potentially eligible for Federal benefits just like U.S. citizens.
Extension or Re-Establishment of Foster Care Services for Young Adults:	The eligibility criteria and procedures associated with providing Extension of Foster Care Services to young adults includes an array of services available to eligible persons. These services require case management by the assigned Workers, Independent Living Services staff, and Placement Services staff (as applicable). These services are voluntary and require a young adult’s initial and on-going agreement to receive them.
Foster Family Home	The home of an individual or family licensed or approved as meeting the standards established by the State licensing or approval authority(ies) (or with respect to foster family homes on or near Indian reservations, by the tribal licensing or approval authority(ies), that provides 24-hour out-of-home care for children. The term may include group homes, agency operated boarding homes or other facilities licensed or approved for the purpose of providing foster care by the State or Tribal agency responsible for approval or licensing of such facilities.
Child Care Institution	A private child care institution, or a public child care institution which accommodates no more than twenty-five children, and is licensed by the appropriate State or Tribal licensing authority as meeting the standards established for such licensing. This definition must not include detention facilities, forestry camps, training schools, or any other facility operated primarily for the detention of children who are determined to be delinquent.
